Can Join for Year

Those Who Served Six Months in Army May Join A. L. I., For That Period

Men who have served six months in the National Guard or in the National Army may enlist for a period of one year in the Alexandria Light Infantry.

Word to the foregoing effect has just been received by Capt. Louis N. Duffey, who recently re-organized that company. This news was sent by Adjutant General Jo Lane Stern. Prior to this time Capt. Duffey had instructions to enlist only one-third of the company for one year and two-thirds for two years.

A drill will be held tonight when the men will be measured for clothing and equipment. It is expected that the men will be mustered into the service of the state militia this week at which time an officer from the U. S. A., will be here for the purpose of also inspecting and recognizing the company for federal service. Many of the men already have undergone the required physical examination.

GLASS WILL HEAD COMMITTEE

Senator Glass was named as Virginia's representative on the resolutions committee while the delegates were en route here. H. D. Flood was chosen chairman of the delegation.

LEAGUE AND LIQUOR IN BITTER BATTLE

Factions Gathering For Sharp Contest in San Francisco

WET PLANK DRAFTED

Postmaster-General's Program Calls For "Individual Liberty" And Modification of Volstead Act.

San Francisco, June 28.—Both wets and drys have launched their planks on the Democratic seas of alcoholic differences, with a stormy passage promised to the final horbor of the convention floor.

For the drys, William J. Bryan made public his proposed plank, a sweeping declaration for enforcement of the Volstead law, without increase in beverages' alcoholic content.

From the wet camp came alternative planks drafted by Postmaster-General Burleson. One declares for "individual liberty" and modificaton of the Volstead law to remove its "drastic and unreasonable features," and the alternate for amendment permitting beverages "in fact not intoxicating."

The planks are to be presented to the resolutions committee upon its organization and regardless of the outcome there it was generally expected that the liquor fight would reach the convention itself.

With both wet and dry factions working hard through the Sabbath, there also was a strong movement to prevent any mention of the liquor question in the platform, a movement backed by many powerful leaders.

The Bryan prohibition plank follows:

"We heartily congratulate the Democratic party on its splendid leadership in the submission and ratification of the prohibition amendments to the Federal Constitution ,and we pledge the party to the effective enforcement of the Volstead law honestly and in good faith, without any increase in the alcoholic content of permitted beverages and without any weakening of any other of its provisions."

"I guess there is no doubt about what that means," said Mr. Bryan. "We will give every delegate a chance to go on record for or against it. I expect to have it adopted by the Resolution committee."

Mr. Burleson, after reading the Bryan plank, gave out his proposals, declaring, however, that he had drafted them by himself and spoke only for modification of present laws.

The proposed plank which Mr. Burleson said he believed would meet the sentiment of the "great majority of the American people" reads:

"The open saloon has been generally condemned by the American people as a menace to society and the well being of the people and its restoration should not be tolerated. The validity of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution having been sustained by the Supreme Court any law enacted under its authority must be strictly enforced. However, the Democratic party pledges its utmost endeavors to prevent this new grant of Federal power from being exercised in such manner as to become oppressive or deprive the people of that individual liberty which it was the purpose of the Union of States to guarantee and preserve through all time. The Volstead act, vetoed by a Democratic President and passed over his veto by a Republican Congress, is an extreme exercise of the powers granted by the Eighteenth Amendment and it should be so amended in strict conformity with the spirit and purpose of the constitution so as to eliminate therefrom its drastic and unreasonable features. We favor an amendment to the Federal Constitution requiring all amendments hereafter proposed thereto to be ratified or rejected by a referendum of the qualified voters of the several States of the Union.

NOTICE

Mrs. Charlotte Wallace Murray, Miss Mary Europe, Mr. 'Manning will appear in recital at Shiloh Baptist Church, (colored), tonight at 8:30. Will sing spirituals and classics. 154-1p

SPORTS

Alexandria Torpedo Station's return game with the Camp Humphreys soldiers Saturday, June 26th, resulted in a decisive victory for the Alexandria team. The game was played on the High School field, and real ball was sure played. The Torpedo Station will play again Saturday, July 3rd, High School field Alexandria, at 2:30 p. m., playing Washington.

The Virginia Athletic Club defeated the strong Government Printing Office nine on the Shipyard diamond yesterday, the score being 8 to 3.

Both teams played a splendid game but the stellar playing of "Jumbo Raison" and "Lucky" Nowland was too much for the Washington lads.

After the game the Washington players enjoyed a refreshing swim from the porch of the Virginia clubhouse.

In an exciting and well-played game the Cardinals defeated the fast Tenleytown team by an 7 to 6 score on the North Alfred street grounds, Sunday.

When the Cardinals went to bat in their half of the ninth inning the Tenleytown lads had a one-run lead. A base on balls to McCann, a three-base drive by Jones, and a long sacrifice fly by Tetreault, which brought home Jones with the winning tally. Two were out when the winning run was made.

The Cardinals worked three pitchers viz. Burrill, "Speedking" Jones and Neidfeldt and all performed well during their turn on the mound. "Teddy," Schafer received the hotshot offerings from his three twirling comrades as gracefully as a lady receives her guests at a pink tea.

"Beau" Hodges, played on second base for the Cardinals. His neat and fast fielding, batting and base running were excellent.

Shortstop Tetreault is a little wonder, his two hits and sacrifice fly, out of four times at bat and his speed on the bases were one of the features of the game.

Jimmy Alexander, the shining light in center field, played a great game for the winners both in batting and fielding. Jimmy distinguished himself last Friday when he pitched a no-hit, no run game against the strong War Risk team, and although giving the enemy five bases on balls, they failed to get a man to third base. In the above-mentioned contest he played with the Finance team, of the Departmental League.

Sampson, Payne and Jim Sweeney took turns in right field, while Frank Owens, covered left field. For Tenleytown, Brill pitched a pretty game and went the full nine innings. The home run made by Stevens with a man on base was the batting feature of the day. Beck also played well at shortstop.

The Dreadnaught A. C. won their 20th straight game yesterday without a defeat this season, defeating the crack All Star Camp Humphreys Officers by the score of 5 to 1. Jimmy Quayle had the soldiers fooled all the way using his fine assortment of curves and dazzling speed to such good effect that he retired 17 men by the strike out route and only allowed 5 hits giving him his 13th straight victory for the season.

The game was featured by the hitting of Davis with two pretty singles. Cornell and Hayden also contributed a triple apiece.

The soldiers made their lone score in the ninth when Quayle eased up and gave them a score on a triple and sacrifice ,but soon showed that he was complete master of the game by striking out the next two batters.

It is estimated that there were 2,500 fans on the field. Keen interest prevailed throughout the game. Next Saturday the Dreadnaught will take on the Navy Team on the local grounds. This game is expected to be the best that has been showed here year.

The club expects to have its grandstand ready for Saturday's game and it is hoped that the fans will show their appreciation of what these boys are giving them and turn out in goodly numbers, ladies are especially invited to attend.

Yesterdays score by innings.

REV. W. F. WATSON STRICKEN IN PULPIT

Was Preaching at Middleburg, Loudoun County

CONDITION CRITICAL

Will be Brought Here Tonight and Taken to Son's House — Third Stroke of Paralysis.

While preaching in the Baptist Church at Middleburg, Loudoun county yesterday morning, Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson, fifty-seven years old, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church, this city, was stricken with paralysis.

A telegram announcing the serious condition of Dr. Watson was received yesterday afternoon by his son, John Watson, this city. Mr. Watson left at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the bedside of his father and his daughter, Miss Kotherine Watson also was summoned, she being in Loudoun county at the time.

Dr. Watson will be brought here at 9 o'clock tonight and taken to the residence of his son in the Fairfax apartment. His condition is reported to be critical.

This is the third stroke of paralysis he has received. While preaching in Asheville, N. C., he received his first stroke, some time afterward he received the second stroke in Harrisonburg, Va.

For four and half years Dr. Watson was pastor of First Bapist Church. Owing to ill health he resigned his pastorate, being succeeded here by Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson.

For a while Dr. Watson had other charges, but his health continued so poor that he was compelled to relinquish a permenant work and since then had made his home in this city with his son in the Fairfax apartment.

News that he had suffered a third strke of paralysis was received with sincere regret by his many friends here.

News of Potomac

Miss Mildred Caylor, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with her sister Mrs. Harry Smallwood of Belfonte Avenue.

Mr. H. T. Burks, Warren Buel and B. F. Roberts have just returned from Coopers College, S. C.

Mr. Adolph E. West, of Lloyd avenue, was operated on at his home Friday, and is improving slowly.

Mrs. Frank Heisley is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Leo Parsons, of Baltimore, Md.

Miss Edith Anderson of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Howard Engleking, of Peyton Avenue.

The mission study class of the Del Ray Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Douglas L. Folkes this evening at 8 o'clock all members of the class are requested to be present.

The ladies of the Del Ray Methodist Church will give a lawn fete on teh lawn of that church immediately after the services tomorrow night which will be conducted by Mr. Morrow.

Christ Church Sunday School

The Gazette is in receipt of the initial copy of "Christ Church Sunday School Record" which contains an account of what that Sunday School has been doing the last year and an outcome of their plans for the future.

The article entitled, "Wanted," A Man For a Man' Job," is a strong plea for workers, red blooded Americans who are not afraid to work for the Master.

The Gazette wishes for this new publication success and trusts that its reception will be such as to warrant issues from time to time as occasion demands.

BOY DROWNED

James T. Richards, This City, Loses Life in Potomac

The body of James T. Richards four years old, son of Thomas McCuen, of 214 Queen street ,this city, who was drowned yesterday afternoon off the Corontian Boat Club wharf at the south end of the high way bridge, was brought to Wheatley's chapel this city last night and prepared for burial. The body was recovered by the harbor police boat.

The lad while reaching out for a stick in the water lost his balance and fell into the river. He was not missed for sometime afterward by McCuen, who is a watchman at the club house.

His funeral will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from 21 Quen street. Services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Narrow Escape

Coping Weighing 500 Pounds Falls From J. A. Cogan's Store

A block of concrete top coping on the front of the store and dwelling of John A. Cogan, 620 King street, which weighs about 500 pounds, was torn from its position shortly before 7 o'clock this morning and hurled to the sidewalk, a distance of thirty feet and John A. Cogan, proprietor of the store, had a narrow escape from being injured just having moved into the vesibule of the store after sweeping the sidewalk.

Chief of Police Goods, who was walking on the other side of the street witnessed the accident. The chief says he undoubtedly would have been hit by the massive coping had he taken the other side of which he usually walks. He however, took the opposite side of the the street today.

An express wagon just passed and its top came in contact with a guy rope holding a sign advertising the chautauqua to be held here. This rope was suspended about the big coping and the pull caused it to fall. The coping brought along with it about 110 bricks.

The place was roped off early in the day until an examination was made to see if any of the other coping was loose.

To Await Decision

Potomac Yard Men on Job Till Railroad Labor Board Acts

Workmen at the Potomac yards Saturday, will not join any outlaw strike. Both day and night shifts Saturday voted to await the award of the Railroad Labor Board on July 20.

The first meeting of the men was held Saturday afternoon when members of the day shifts met and voted to await the decision of the labor board. Later another meeting was held at the instigation of a small body of the workers not satisfied with the first decision but these finally also agreed to wait.

Saturday night, the workers on the midnight to 8 a. m., shift voted to remain at work. The decision affects about 600 men in the Potomac yards.

The Washington terminal and Eckington freight yards reported there was no walkout at their yards despite the expected exodus at midnight. Officials last night admitted however, they might expect almost anything from the men as they have taken "vacations"" several times without any warning and have returned the same way.

At the Potomac yards every effort was being made Saturday to clear the yards of all perishable freight. More than 1 000 cars were standing in the yards.

An automobile driven by Mrs. A. T. Renshaw, 1317 L street northwest, Washington, yesterday crashed into an automobile driven by James F. Thompson, 1802 King street, this city. Two women, who reside in Washington, occupants of Mrs. Renshaw's car, were considerably injured and both machines were wrecked.

TWO HOLD UP MEN BUSY IN FAIRFAX

One Victim Slightly Wounded as Result of Encounter

OCCURRED SATURDAY

Get $30 and Gold Watch From Second Man—Police From Here Search For Highwaymen Without Success.

Two hold ups were reported to the police as having occurred in Fairfax county a few miles south of Alexandria Saturday night. According to the reports made to the police the first victim of two negro robbers was Henry Johnson colored. Johnson at 9 o'clock at night heard a rapping on his door. Responding he was confronted by two colored men who asked the direction for a certain road. Johnson accompanied the men a few yards from his house and just as he was about to explain he was confronted by a pistol in the hands of one of the robbers, the other demanding his money. Johnson told them he was without funds whereupon one of the bandits fired the bullet entering his left shoulder. Johnson came to this city and was treated by Dr. Albert Johnson. He furnished the police with good description of his assailants.

Chief of Police Goods, Sergt. W. J. Wilkinson and Sergt. William Campbell, scoured the entire neighborhood without finding any trace of the hold up men, making the trip in the patrol wagon, returning shortly before midnight.

The police also received a report that a farm hand living in the vicinity of Warwick Fairfax county, several miles below Alexandria on the Washington-Virginia trolley line, was held up by two negro highwaymen and robbed of $30 in cash and a gold watch.

The robbers are described as being tall, ginger bread colors and wore overalls. They are strangers in that section say persons who have seen them.

IN MEMORIAM

SUTHARD—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and grandson, EARL, who departed this life one year ago, June 27, 1919.

Peaceful be your rest, dear Earl,
It is sweet to breathe your name,
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.
The depth of our sorrow no one can tell,
But while he rests in a peaceful sleep,
His precious memory we will always keep.
We shall never ceased to love you,
Though your form be in the dust,
And some day we will be with you,
To this end in God we trust.
His devoted Father, Mother,
Sisters and Brother.

One year has passed since that sad day,
That our dear grandson was called away,
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.
We cannot forget you, dear Earl,
While in this world we stay,
God only knows our feeling,
Since you have passed away.
We mourn for you yet in our sorrow,
Your dear sweet smiles too,
You cannot come to us, dear Earl,
But some day we will come to you.
Grandmother and Grandfather.

VIRGINIA IN THE LEAD

A cotemporary calls attention to the fact that "Virginia has won a new and somewhat astonishing victory. The Old Dominion leads all the States of the Union in the nation wide effort of the Department of Agriculture to improve the live stock of the country by replacing mongrel and scrub sires with pure-bred animals.

"In" this Better Sires—Better Stock movement one would anticipate that some of the great stock-raising States of the Middle or Far West would easily be first. But the records of the Bureau of Animal Industry show that Virginia stands in the lead, with more than 18,000 pure-bred sires already enrolled. And the movement is spreading with increasing rapidiy all over the State Pulaski county leads the State, with 354 farmers already enrolled.

"In a single day recently the bureau received letters from 72 Virginia farmers pledging themselves not only to buy pure bred sires, including rams, boars and roosters, but to follow methods suggested by the Department of Agriculture to further improve the live stock of the State.

"Most of the States of the South have so far failed to raise enough live stock to supply their own demand for beef, pork, mutton and poultry. That one of the Southern States should now lead the country in the movement to improve the quality and increase the production of domestic animals is a happy omen."

THIRD TERM BUGABOO

So far as we have observed, in no particular has President Wilson given the slightest hint that he is a candidate, tentative or otherwise, for a third term. It is true he has refrained from making a declaration of his self-immolation, but that would have been to sacrifice his leadership of the party in advance of necessity thereby imperilling his influence in shaping legislation and in impressing his policies on the Democratic national convention. So long as he remains unannounced he is a potential candidate, hence an entity to be reckoned with, which is sound strategy, to say the least. Certainly, if he actually harbored aspirations for a third term his closest political associates, now entrusted with the carrying out of his wishes at San Francisco, would be advised. No, there is not a scintilla of evidence in that direction and common sense rejects any suggestion of such a contingency. The President has been a mighty sick man; he is happily recovering, but the process is slow. To lead a campaign for re-election with all that it implies in a third term contest, is unthinkable for one in his physical condition. The so called "Alabama proclamation" is wholly unnecessary and a work of supererogation. What it recites is universally known and understood. To say that he "must now stand aside and bow to the will of the country" is to declare that he has been standing in the way, which is an unwarranted assumption. The President has served his country well; he has earned retirement and doubtless, will gladly welcome it. —(Richmond Journal.

EXPENSE AND EXPERIENCE

A man in Georgia, disgusted and defeated, sent in the following sworn statements of his expenses and experience during his canvass:

Lost 1,349 hours sleep thinking about the election. Lost two front teeth and a whole lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent. Donated one beef, four shoats and gave away a pair of suspenders, five sheep to a county barbecue, four calico dresses, $5 cash; and 13 baby rattles. Kissed 126 babies. Kindled fourteen kitchen fires. Put up four stoves. Walked 4,076 miles. Shook hands with 9,508 persons. Told 10,101 lies and talked enough to make in print 7,000 volumes. Attended sixteen revival meetings, and was baptized four different times by immersion, and twice some other way. Contributed $50 to foreign missions, and made love to nine grass widows. Hugged 49 old maids. Got dog bit 39 times, and was defeated.

I. W. W. PLANS

Few people realize the extent of the malign plans the I. W. W. made for creating chaos and devastation in the grain growing regions of the West last summer, says the Manufacturers Record. "At the recent convention of the National Association of Fire Marshals there were exhibited a wide variety of incendiary bombs for starting fires in the wheat fields of Kansas. State Fire Marshal L. T. Hussey, and his force of 18 men, assisted by representatives of fire insurance companies and Secret Service men waged so successful a campaign against the reign of terror by the radical labor element that out of a crop value of $371,000,000 only a $254,000 damage was reported.

Through an intercepted letter sent out by the I. W. W. organization, containing plans and the names of I. W. W. agents and organizations in various parts of the State, the authorities were able to make a good many arrests and to secure a large quantity of I. W. W. literature. To this failure to get the literature and instructions distributed is attributed the success of the Fire Marshal in preventing a disaster to the food crop of Kansas.

It is estimated that the I. W. W. had about 500 organizers in the Kansas section. Among these members were skilled chemists and bomb makers who made incendiary apparatus, devilishly ingenious in their simplicity, for producing and spreading fire and destruction. The bombs were of many types, ranging all the way from a combination of uncommon chemicals to ordinary matches placed in a box having a glass top so arranged as to focus the sun's rays on the match heads and cause them to ignite. They were all of the time bomb variety, not igniting until the culprit was far from the scene and had had time to establish an alibi. A number of barns in the wheat belt were burned during the harvest season from mysterious fires, which were doubtless the result of I. W. W. activity.

"This is not an account of the acts of savages in an uncivilized country. It is all the more fiendish in that these crimes were committed in the twentieth century by educated supposedly civilized, men against the men, women and children of the United States."

BRYAN AGAINST LEAGUE

Declares Liquor is an Issue of Greater Importance

San Francisco, June 28.—William J. Bryan Saturday for the first time came out into the open in his fight against a platform plank making the league of nations the paramount issue of the campaign.

"It is a crime to drag the peace treaty into the mire of politics," he declared, addressing a luncheon of the Commonwealth Club. "Shame on any Democrat or Republican who would drag this question down into party politics."

Bryan declared that a campaign with the league as the big issue—which President Wilson wants—would be a shambattle. "And we don't want a shambattle in this country this fall," he said.

Bryan announced that liquor was the paramount issue in his estimates. 'And there will be no dodging of it," he cried. "Liquir will either control the Democratic party or be out of business forever. This convention must kill liquor as dead as slavery."

He declared he would demand that every delegation be polled when the convention votes on a wet or dry plank, if it goes to the floor, "and then see whether or not they can vote wet and go back to face the people at home." Bryan also declared for planks to stop profiteering and to provide for investigation of industrial disputes and a "cooling off" period before a strike or lockout.

CAT KILLED BY SNAKE

Merchant at Freeling Cuts Ladder in Two, But it Hides in Wall

Freeling, Va., June 28.—Adam H. Kendrick, a merchant of this place, had quite an experience, which he relates substantially as follows: At night Kendrick discovered the house cat lying dead on the hearth. Suspecting that the feline had died from the bite of a poisonous snake, he closely investigated the premises, but no presence of the supposed reptile was revealed.

Next morning, however, his little 6 year old son, being in the store saw a large rattlesnake lying contentedly on the floor behind the counter. But his presence caused the reptile to assume a formidable attitude, when it began to "sing." The boy gave the alarm and Kendrick hurried to the spot. Finding no other weapon with which to do battle, he snakeship, he seized a hand saw lying upon the counter and

One stroke with the edge of the tool, nearly severed the tail end from the body and the wounded reptile wriggled through an opening in the floor next the wall, and disappeared. As no search could be made under the floor, owing to the construction of the building, no further trace of the objectionable visitor has been seen.

HAMBURG RIOTS

London, June 28.—Three persons were killed and several wounded in riots at Hamburg, according to advices here.

Thousands of rioters in Hamburg and Altona raided stores and food shops, confiscating food and clothing in protest against high prices. Police restored order.

Richmond—Dangerous to Men

Viola Dana in "Dangerous to Men" will be the feature attraction today at the Richmond Theatre. It is a Leap Year Photoplay, joyous with the tingling gaiety of youth and tense with the interest of dramatic situations.

"Dangerous to Men" is an adaptation of H. V. Esmond's drama. "Eliza Comes To Stay," one of the biggest successes of the modern English stage. In it the fascinating little Miss Dana has scored the greatest personal triumph of her career.

It is the romance of an ugly duckling, who finds herself at 18 in a young bachelor's household as his ward. How she becomes "dangerous" with the allurements of youthful audacity and makes men dizzy in the giddy whirl of courtship is told in a story full of thrilling developments.

Special interest for women is found in the emphasis the story puts upon the psychology of clothes and how much gowns mean to a girl in the game of love. Miss Dana has an opportunity to wear some of the most modish creations of the season.

"Dangerous to Men," is the sort of picture that should not be missed

Preventol Drives Out Flies

Flies are messengers of disease and death. They breed in filth and carry germs from the filth to your food, to your table, to anything they touch. A single fly in your home may mean disease to your baby or to you.

Use Preventol to drive flies from your home. Spray it in your living room, in your kitchen, in your bed rooms, wherever there is a single fly or more. Spray it over garbage and piles of refuse to kill the eggs of this deadly pest. Get rid of flies and stop disease spreading—they are the deadliest of all living things.

Preventol is a vapor in non-staining and non-poisonous. Spray it—see that screens are tight for open door or window. Spray the screens and woodwork to keep them out. The vapor will also rout mosquitoes, kill bed bugs, flies, germs and destroy odors.

The Combination Sprayer and Pint Can in handy box saves you money. $1.20 at your dealer's. Additional re-fill cans: Pint, 60c; Quart, $1.00; Half Gallon, $1.75.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Headed by Bishop Dennis J. O'Connell, of the Diocese of Richmond, between 40 and 50 priests of the Catholic Church in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and other States, will gather in Richmond this week for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of the Rev. John McVerry, the present pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart.

For a long time there has been complaint among the Republicans that the state has not been redistricted for members of congress, as required by the state constitution. Democrats, too, have complained from time to time that they needed a change in many sections. The matter was up before the last session of the legislature, and a committee is named for the purpose of recommending a plan for making the changes. Just what that committee will recommend no one knows, of course, but the information at hand is that the Ninth district is to be so altered that the voters of that section will have a chance to make a change once in a while.

Men employed on public construction work and others engaged in Winchester in various activities who usually begin the day's work at 7 o'clock refused to strike a lick Friday, all because a number of pigeons had perched upon the minute hands of the City Hall clock the preceding evening and stopped the official time piece. Bosses asked the men why they did not go to work, saying they had already lost over an hour. "It hasn't struck 7," chorused a group of street workers. An investigation disclosed that the pigeons had roosted on the minute hand of the four sides of the clock at 6:45 p. m.

Applications to the Comptroller of the Currency last week for authority to organize national banks included that of the First National Bank of Big Stone Gap, which was issued a charter to do business as a national institution, with a capital of $50,000. The bank was formerly the Interstate Finance and Trust Company of Big Stone Gap. A charter was also issued to a new bank at Vienna, Fairfax county, which will be known as the Vienna National Bank. Frank Williams is president, and Vernor Gowin, cashier. Application for a charter was also made by a new bank, to be known as the First National Bank of Pennington Gap, whose sponsor is R. E. L. Chumbley. Capital of this institution, as stated in the application, is $25,000.

Vigorous denial of an implied charge by Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, that Senator Claude A. Swanson is at heart opposed to the treaty of Versailles, although circumstances forced him to vote the other way, was made by the senior Senator from Virginia in a telegram to Senator Walsh at San Francisco.

Miss Carrie M. Gregory, who was licensed by the State Supreme Court to practice law, is the first woman to secure such a license. Miss Gregory was the first woman notary public in Virginia, having been commissioned under the new constitution July 10, 1902. She was also the first woman stenographer to do court work in Virginia. She will practice here.

In a fit of despondency, C. W. West, an octogenarian, living with his family in Richmond, cut his throat Saturday morning in his home and is now at the Virginia Hospital hovering between life and death. Police investigating the case were told that West remarked Saturday that the burdens of old age and infirmity were more than he could bear. He recently passed his eightieth birthday anniversary.

MAY SUMMER AT SEA

Mayflower Made Ready for Long Cruise—President May Visit Canal Zone

President Wilson may soon board the yacht, Mayflower, and set out for a long vacation at sea, instead of going to some shore resort. The talk yesterday was that he is to head southward immediately after the adjournment of the Democratic national convention at San Francisco.

The Mayflower recently has been refurnished in part, one new feature being an elevator. It is said, however, that the lift will not be necessary now, as the President has recovered his health at great strides within the past few weeks.

The President appears to have thrived on the excitement of the Republican convention at Chicago, and those around him do not look for any thrills emanating from San Francisco.

The whole air of the White House, from the next highest official down, is that there is a secret there which nobody has guessed, but that it is as good as an accomplished fact. The more William G. McAdoo is suggested as the certain standard bearer, the less communicative all officials become.

If things go as well as planned, therefore, the President's voyage will be one of continued expectation of another vindication at the polls in November, the consummation of which must remain in doubt, nevertheless, until the ballots are counted.

BOMBARD JAIL

Toledo, Ohio, June 26.—Five gunmen wounded Webster Stough, 55, a night watchman, and bombarded the Fulton county jail at Wauseon early yesterday in an unsuccessful attempt to liberate Edward O'Neill, alias Malady, awaiting trial for alleged participation in a $21,000 bank robbery at Delta, Ohio, a month ago.

Stough, with a bullet in his arm; Sheriff J. B. McQuillen and Deputy Walter Stevens exchanged 25 shots with the invaders, who had forced a kitchen window in the jail. Shot from the gunmen's sawed off guns riddled the prison windows. The quintet escaped toward Toledo in a touring car. O'Neill was the only prisoner in the building.

If You Are Easily Tired Out, Your Blood Needs Purifying

Clogged-up Impurities Will Undermine Your Health.

The first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradual lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown.

This whole condition is but the result of impurities in the blood that show that nature needs assistance in giving the system a general housecleaning.

Nearly everybody just now needs a few Bottles of S. S. S. to cleanse the system of impurities.

S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

STILL AND LIQUOR SEIZED

Revenue Agents Arrest Dr. Emile Scharf

Charged with violating the national prohibition law by having a still in his home, Dr. Emile Scharf, 2603 Mozart place northwest, Washington, was arrested Friday by agents of the bureau of internal revenue and officers of the Tenth precinct. Dr. Scharf was given a preliminary hearing beforee United States Commissioner Isaac Hitt and held on $500 bond. His case will be heard on July 12.

W. J. Green and Judson Westmoreland, agents of the bureau of internal revenue, declared that when arrested Scharf was in possession of a notebook in which a number of dates, alleged to have been the times he distilled liquor, were entered. Police state that ten quarts of whisky, five quarts of wine and twenty gallons of peach brandy mash were seized in the raid. A still holding approximately three gallons is also said to have been found in Scharf's home.

James E. Cannon, on Behalf of Delegation, to Assure Glass of Hearty Support

Richmond, June 28.—Virginia delegates to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco stopped over yesterday at Colorado Springs, Colo., and during the stop over appointments were made for the convention, according to a dispatch received here.

A committee, headed by State Senator James Cannon, was named to call on Carter Glass and assure him the hearty support of the Virginia delegation in his candidacy for the presidetial nomination.

H. D. Flood, Representative in Congress from the Tenth District, was chosen chairman of the delegation. The other appointments were: Secretary, J. C. Boyd, committee on credentials; Hiram M. Smith, permanent organization, E. Frank Story; committee on rules and order of business, George C. Perry; resolutions and national committeeman, Carter Glass.

The meeting was called to order by State Chairman Rorer A. James in the Antlers Hotel, and M. R. Morgan was appointed secretary of the meeting.

FOUR NEGROES FOUND SHOT

Supposed to Have Been Killed By Moonshiners

Columbus, Ga., June 28.—The bodies of four unidentified negroes were found yesterday in the wood about eight miles from Columbus. Each body contained a number of bullet wounds and the theory was advanced that the men had been killed by moonshiners.

The discovery of the bodies resulted from a search inaugurated by several farmers whose farm hands failed to show up yesterday.

Flying Parson To Speak Here

Winner of Transcontinental Aero Race

Lieutenant Belvin W. Maynard, better known as "The Flying Parson," because he entered the aviation service from the ministry at his country's call, is naturally famous because of his winning the Transcontinental Aero Race, conducted last October.

At the invitation of the Swarthmore Chautauquas, Lieut. Maynard upon his discharge in April, 1920, from his military service, has turned his attention to the lecture platform where he will have ample opportunity to continue his patriotic labors under the title, "Motor Troubles of Society." This intrepid aviator, who knows so well how to overcome aeroplane motor troubles, will discuss our national and social problems from a new viewpoint. Lieut. Maynard is the red-blooded type of man whose varied experiences and training fit him for a practical and helpful discussion of this subject.

His physical fitness and mental alertness led the flying parson to take chances that most aviators shun, although he instantly enters a modest disclaimer when faced with the tribute. Where others followed railroad tracks or the ribbon-like highways in going from control to control, Lieut. Maynard took the cross-country cut, flying entirely by compass. He set his faith upon his star and sheared off the miles. On the trip from San Francisco he had occasion to take a long chance. Leaving Chicago, his course led him straight across Lake Michigan, and he followed his needle without hesitation. More cautious competitors circled the water and lost valuable time. His charge across the lake was one way of showing confidence in himself.

The real conditioning he believes in brought him earlier fame than his victory in the great Derby. Months ago he took to the air, bent on record-making. Three hundred and eighteen loops in 67 minutes did the trick—an average of better than a loop every fifteen seconds, continued for over an hour! It is a mark which has repelled assault after assault by other army aviators. Maynard came out of the test tired, of course, but far from exhausted.

This clear-headed parson, undizzied and unexhausted, comes on the closing night of Chautauqua to tell us how our problems look from the far heights to which he has become accustomed.

SEVEN PERSONS KILLED

Driver Loses Control of Machine on Illinois Central Railroad Crossing

Franklin, Ind., June 28.—Seven persons were killed and two probably fatally injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by an Illinois Central passenger train at a crossing ten miles west of here yesterday evening. The party was driving here from Nashville, Ind.

The driver is said to have lost control of the machine as he neared the crossing and drove directly in front of the approaching train. All those killed were members of the family of the driver, William Litherland, a garage owner of Nashville, Ind.

KILLED IN PISTOL BATTLE

Cadwell, Near Dublin, Ga., Scene of Revival of Ancient Feud, Aggravated by Liquor Raid

Dublin, Ga., June 28.—H. L. Jenkins, merchant and former Mayor, was killed and four other men wounded, two of whom may die, in a pistol battle between rival factions at Cadwell, twenty miles from here in Laurens County, late Saturday night.

The trouble is said to have grown out of an old feud in Cadwell dating back to a bitter fight over the location of the railroad station. At that time, it is said, Bedingfield and Mullins represented one side, while Jenkins, Cadwell and Quilling were opponents.

The original disagreement, it is alleged, was revived in an argument begun Saturday night, which culminated in the pistol battle.

OUTLAW STRIKE FAILS

Railroad Brotherhoods' Report Declares Workers Ignore Call of Leaders

Washington, June 28.—The nationwide railroad strike called by "outlaw" leaders to begin at midnight Saturday night failed to attain serious proportions anywhere in the country, according to reports received at headquarters of the railway brotherhoods here.

These reports, it was stated, show that comparatively few men left their posts, although, the full strength of the walkout will not be apparent until the absentees are checked up at the hour for their resuming work tomorrow. The most serious reports came from Baltimore, but brotherhood officials declared these were exaggerated.

Richmond, June 28.—Richmond yard men and trainmen of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad voted unanimously against joining the "outlaw" strike of railroad employees, and determined to stand solidly behind their union officials at a meeting at which a strike vote was taken last night. The men determined not to strike until ordered to do so by their national union officials.

WOOD ALCOHOL KILLS

Hartford, Conn., June 28.—Three are dead and two are dying here after drinking a combination of wood alcohol and Jamaica ginger. The authorities fear a recurrence of deaths from drinking wood alcohol similar to last December, when 20 persons were killed in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

TO OUR COAL TRADE

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders; deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

This also applies to any orders we already have from our trade.

LIMIT BIBLE TEACHINGS

Berlin, June 28.—Catholic newspapers are watching with growing concern a movement to introduce a new system of religious instruction in German schools. Heretofore such instructions has been based on the Old and New Testaments.

The new plan, which was evolved by teachers of Meiningen and recently endorsed by the teachers' association of Thuringia, where Protestants are in the majority, would do away with Bible study. Instead, children during their first four years in school would be instructed in German fairy tales and myths, Robinson Crusoe and the history of the child Jesus. In the last four years the instruction would have to do with the worship of God by ancient peoples, the life and teachings of Jesus, and the worship of God in Germany. More and more, the Thuringia teachers agreed, German myths and poetry should replace in the schools the Old Testament.

REED LOSES SEAT

Senator Carter Glass Leads Fight in Opposition to Missourian

Auditorium, San Francisco, June 28.—Administration leaders won a sweeping victory in the Democratic National Committee Saturday when that body recognized the Palmer group of delegates in the Georgia contest and refused to give Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, bitter opponent of the league of nations, a seat in the convention. The vote to keep Reed out of the convention was 34 to 12 and came out after a long public hearing and an hour and a half of discussion behind closed doors.

The vote to seat the Georgia Palmer delegates was unanimous, 49 votes being recorded in their favor with four committeemen absent. The action of the national committee in the Georgia contest carries with it the re-election of Clark Howell as a member of the national committee, his delegates having selected him at the time they were named in Georgia.

Senator Glass, Virginia, made the principal speech against Reed.

TWO SMALL FIRES

Auto Yesterday and Shed Saturday Night

Damage estimated at $150 was done to an automobile belonging to William Lyons at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when it took fire while on Queen between Fayette and Payne streets. The machine was driven by a colored chauffeur. The fire department responded and chemical extinguishers were used in subduing the blaze.

At 9 o'clock Saturday night the fire department was called out to extinguish a blaze caused by a burning shed in the rear of house 311 Queen street, between Royal and Fairfax.
